HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY. A live and growing city of 8,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 40,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in and Nashville has two times of railrund in the county. The larcost tobacco growing county into world. Wheat corn, hay coal, live stock and fruits produced for expert is 'arge quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $410,000. A plan-ing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, lime factory, tobacco unanifactory, two foundries, three brickyards, broom fac-tory, steam laundry, lee factory, two large douring mills in the city and several in the county. Splendid driving par and face opera house. Five turnphose contering in Hopkins-ville. Building and Loan Association, Com-mercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered attreets and houses and city lighted by gas. Macadamized streets and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges a high school and the dinest system of public a high school and the finest system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. West-ern Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a popula-tion of 60s, two miles east of the city. A $10s, 000 court house with town clock in the dome. on ours house with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little litter furnishes an adequate upply of water for all purposes. Real estate low and rents cheap. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canners, tanyard and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly hesithful.

A picture of the man held at Scotts boro, Ala., was forwarded to Frank fort last week. It wssn't Tate.

Henry Mason, the Democratic nom inee in Hancock county, was after all elected representative, but by only 4 votes. Wortham, for senator, car ried the county by 8 majority.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick, a niece of Jefferson Davis, has been sentenced to death at Liverpool, England, for the murder of her husband. She was a New Orleans girl, who mar-ried her English husband seven years ago.

Clarksville like every other town in the country tries to be facetiou and asks for the World's Fair in 1892. There is no need for Hopkinsville to put in a similar petition. She already has many of the world's "fair," although she is every year called upon to supply a steady demand for protty wives in Clarksville and other places.

Throughout the broard expanse of the first and second districts, only one Republican was elected to the Legislature-E-q. H. B. Clark in Christian. Seventeen Democrats were chosen and the eighteenth tied his man in Trigg. Of the eight Senalors from the same section, Lunsford of Hopkins and Martin of Butler are the only Republicans. There were no flies on Western Kentucky this time.
